

Huskies Prepare for Rematch With Cornell

Ex-Seattleite Leads N.C.A.A. Golf Meet

The SPORTING THING

- A Cougar Daydream
- Pasadena in '63?

By GEORG N. MEYERS
Sports Editor, The Times

IRREPRESSIBLE OLD COUGARS, a fortnight before Washington State University legally attaches to the Athletic Association of Western Universities, already have figured out how their football team could make it to the Rose Bowl January 1.

Washington State will make all the Big Five letter-heads obsolete July 1.

With pencil, paper, lavish hope and vivid imagination, fugitives from the Palouse have satisfied themselves that all the Cougars have to do to become irresistible to Pasadena is win ten games next fall.

Winning ten would require, of course, that Washington State beat Washington and Stanford. They are the only league opponents on the 1962 schedule for the new member of the new Big Six.

Earning new Bowl recognition on the basis of two conference games seems unthinkable, until you listen to the Old Cougars.

THE BIG FIVE, the past two years, by tacit agreement has shipped its champion to the Rose Bowl—U. C. L. A. last January and Washington in 1961.

It may have escaped memory that the Huskies' trip of January 1, 1960, to beat Wisconsin, was authorized by a vote of all nine members of the old Pacific Coast Conference—even though the conference officially was defunct.

The demise caught the Pacific Coast embarrassed in midcontract with the Big Ten. The document then extant specified that the West's representative be selected by vote of the nine members of the Coast Conference.

So, from the grave, so to speak, athletic directors of the dissolved league balloted in favor of Washington, which merely tied that season for the Big Five championship with Southern California and U. C. L. A.

Since then, the Big Five has produced clear-cut champions, and the "vote," though performed, was perfunctory.

The addition of Six will, for perhaps a half dozen years until the Cougars can wriggle onto all their fellow members' schedules, make the vote something of a cause for suspense.

IN 1962, FOR EXAMPLE—and this the Old Cougars daydreaming—the fact that Washington State meets only two league foes should be incidental.

Even a six-team league, by national standards, is small. And, including Washington State vs. Washington and Stanford, all the league games total a mere 12.

The Cougars also play San Jose State. So do California and Stanford.

The Cougars play Oregon and Oregon State. So do Stanford and Washington.

So, over-all, the 48 games played by all Big Six teams all season include 21 involving opponents common to the Cougars and some other members of the league.

That, the Pullman faithful declare, should serve as a fair measuring stick for selecting a "most representative" team for New Year's Day.

The Cougars also play Indiana, Wyoming, Arizona State, University of the Pacific and Idaho. A team good enough to beat Washington and Stanford surely could handle that group, couldn't it?

And the chances are, the old Five will chop each other up. It would be a shame to send a beaten team to the Rose Bowl, if an undefeated candidate were accessible.

That's what the Cougars hanker to be: Unbeaten and accessible.

CURBSTONE COMMUNIQUE: The N. C. A. A. tennis championships at Stanford look like a carbon copy of the national hard-court tournament here last week, with Rafael Osuna, Larry Nagler and Bill Bond seeded 1-2-3, just as they were here. When Jack Nicklaus, in his seventh month as a professional, won the national open golf tournament, he was following, more or less, in the footsteps of the man he beat, Arnold Palmer (who, in HIS seventh month as a pro also won his first tournament, the Canadian open). . . . All good things come to an end: Eight days ago, the Kansas City A's signed Larry Staverman as a batting-practice pitcher and, until last night against Minnesota, they had not lost a game with Larry warming up the batters. (If the name sounds familiar, that is the same 6-foot-7-inch Staverman who plays for the Kansas City Steers of the American Basketball League.) . . . While you weren't looking, Ni Chih-Chin of Red China high-jumped 7 feet 1 1/2 inches last week-end (equaling the year's best jump in the world by Russia's Valery Brumel, another Communist). . . . The Berlin stadium where Jesse Owens was the big star of the 1936 Olympics will be the site of the light-heavyweight match Saturday between Harold Johnson and Gustav (Bubi) Scholz. (Bubi has lost but one fight in 92, most of them in Berlin, where he is unbeaten.)

Osuna Wins 2 in Net Meet

STANFORD, Calif., June 19.—(A.P.)—Rafael Osuna of Osuna in the final at Seattle, Southern California, winner of defeated Ron Yamagami of the national hard-court champion Sacramento State, 6-0, 6-6, in the final at Seattle last Sunday. But one of four University day, advanced to the third of Washington players was victorious today in the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association, featured Jim Garcia of the University of California at San Francisco in a University's courts.

Osuna, hard-hitting Mexican, The Huskies' Pete Jobs, City star and No. 1 seeded in Larry Hunt and Gary Larson this tournament, defeated Ken Lott in the second round, Jobs Paulson of Northwestern, 6-2, lost to Bill Lenoir of Arizona, 6-4, and Jim Tenney of Michigan, 6-2, 6-1; Hal German of Oregon, 6-1, 6-4 in first and second round; Princeton beat Hunt, 8-6, 6-2; on-round matches yesterday; and Larson defaulted to Tony Second-seeded Larry Nagler; Sisson of U. S. F.

DURHAM, N. C., June 19.—(A.P.)—Kermit Zarley, University of Houston golfer from Yakima, Wash., shot into the early lead of the national collegiate golf-tournament today with a 36-hole total of 140.

Zarley, one of 46 players halted by darkness during yesterday's first qualifying round, returned to the course this morning to par the 18th hole and complete a 3-under-par 68 first round. He returned to the course a half-hour later and turned in a second-round-72.

With about 150 of the field 215 still on the Duke University course, Zarley held a 3-stroke lead over his nearest rivals, John Lotz of San Jose State and Charles Layton of Georgia.

Lotz shot par 71 today for his 143 total. Layton, a quarterfinalist last year, had a second-round 73. Temperatures were in the 90's at mid-day.

Another Georgian, James Gabrielson, carded a 70 and had a 145 total.

The low 64 qualifiers will begin match play tomorrow. It appeared that a score of 153 or 154 would be qualifying cutoff point.

Chief threats to Zarley's medal hopes were Bill Temple of Purdue, and Ken Folkes of Wake Forest, who had first-round par 71's.

Zarley, whose parents now live in Yakima, is a native of Seattle, and is a graduate of West Seattle High School.

TODAY'S Baseball:

Mets Defeat Braves, End Loss Streak

NEW YORK, June 19.—(A.P.)—Gene Woodling and Joe Christopher hit home runs and Roger Craig pitched a seven-hitter today as the New York Mets broke a seven-game losing streak with a 6-5 victory over Milwaukee.

A crowd of 3,862 saw the Mets beat the Braves for the sixth time in ten meetings. The Mets do not hold an edge over any other club.

With the score tied, 4-4, in the fifth, the Mets loaded the bases with nobody out and Frank Thomas scored the tie-breaking run on an infield out.

Woodling's homer came in the sixth.

The Braves got two runs in the first on Roy McMillan's double, Mack Jones' triple and an infield out, but New York came back with three on Christopher's homer, Elie Chacon's triple, a walk and singles by Charlie Neal and Chris Cannizzaro. The Mets picked up another in the third when Marv Throneberry singled, Neal walked and Cannizzaro singled.

Milwaukee tied the score in the fourth. Eddie Matthews hit his 12th homer, Henry Aaron doubled and Frank Bolling singled. A walk, Bolling's double and pinch hitter Del Crandall's sacrifice fly left the Braves one run short in the ninth.

Woodling's homer came in the sixth. The Braves got two runs in the first on Roy McMillan's double, Mack Jones' triple and an infield out, but New York came back with three on Christopher's homer, Elie Chacon's triple, a walk and singles by Charlie Neal and Chris Cannizzaro. The Mets picked up another in the third when Marv Throneberry singled, Neal walked and Cannizzaro singled.

Milwaukee tied the score in the fourth. Eddie Matthews hit his 12th homer, Henry Aaron doubled and Frank Bolling singled. A walk, Bolling's double and pinch hitter Del Crandall's sacrifice fly left the Braves one run short in the ninth.

Woodling's homer came in the sixth. The Braves got two runs in the first on Roy McMillan's double, Mack Jones' triple and an infield out, but New York came back with three on Christopher's homer, Elie Chacon's triple, a walk and singles by Charlie Neal and Chris Cannizzaro. The Mets picked up another in the third when Marv Throneberry singled, Neal walked and Cannizzaro singled.

Milwaukee tied the score in the fourth. Eddie Matthews hit his 12th homer, Henry Aaron doubled and Frank Bolling singled. A walk, Bolling's double and pinch hitter Del Crandall's sacrifice fly left the Braves one run short in the ninth.

Woodling's homer came in the sixth. The Braves got two runs in the first on Roy McMillan's double, Mack Jones' triple and an infield out, but New York came back with three on Christopher's homer, Elie Chacon's triple, a walk and singles by Charlie Neal and Chris Cannizzaro. The Mets picked up another in the third when Marv Throneberry singled, Neal walked and Cannizzaro singled.

Milwaukee tied the score in the fourth. Eddie Matthews hit his 12th homer, Henry Aaron doubled and Frank Bolling singled. A walk, Bolling's double and pinch hitter Del Crandall's sacrifice fly left the Braves one run short in the ninth.

Woodling's homer came in the sixth. The Braves got two runs in the first on Roy McMillan's double, Mack Jones' triple and an infield out, but New York came back with three on Christopher's homer, Elie Chacon's triple, a walk and singles by Charlie Neal and Chris Cannizzaro. The Mets picked up another in the third when Marv Throneberry singled, Neal walked and Cannizzaro singled.

Milwaukee tied the score in the fourth. Eddie Matthews hit his 12th homer, Henry Aaron doubled and Frank Bolling singled. A walk, Bolling's double and pinch hitter Del Crandall's sacrifice fly left the Braves one run short in the ninth.

Woodling's homer came in the sixth. The Braves got two runs in the first on Roy McMillan's double, Mack Jones' triple and an infield out, but New York came back with three on Christopher's homer, Elie Chacon's triple, a walk and singles by Charlie Neal and Chris Cannizzaro. The Mets picked up another in the third when Marv Throneberry singled, Neal walked and Cannizzaro singled.

Milwaukee tied the score in the fourth. Eddie Matthews hit his 12th homer, Henry Aaron doubled and Frank Bolling singled. A walk, Bolling's double and pinch hitter Del Crandall's sacrifice fly left the Braves one run short in the ninth.

Woodling's homer came in the sixth. The Braves got two runs in the first on Roy McMillan's double, Mack Jones' triple and an infield out, but New York came back with three on Christopher's homer, Elie Chacon's triple, a walk and singles by Charlie Neal and Chris Cannizzaro. The Mets picked up another in the third when Marv Throneberry singled, Neal walked and Cannizzaro singled.

Milwaukee tied the score in the fourth. Eddie Matthews hit his 12th homer, Henry Aaron doubled and Frank Bolling singled. A walk, Bolling's double and pinch hitter Del Crandall's sacrifice fly left the Braves one run short in the ninth.

Woodling's homer came in the sixth. The Braves got two runs in the first on Roy McMillan's double, Mack Jones' triple and an infield out, but New York came back with three on Christopher's homer, Elie Chacon's triple, a walk and singles by Charlie Neal and Chris Cannizzaro. The Mets picked up another in the third when Marv Throneberry singled, Neal walked and Cannizzaro singled.

Milwaukee tied the score in the fourth. Eddie Matthews hit his 12th homer, Henry Aaron doubled and Frank Bolling singled. A walk, Bolling's double and pinch hitter Del Crandall's sacrifice fly left the Braves one run short in the ninth.

SWING'S THE THING: Don Carter, winner of the $20,000 Santafair pro open bowling tournament, hit a 3-iron shot at Rainier Golf Club yesterday as two other St. Louis bowlers, Al Savas, left, and Tom Hennessey, and Doc Maczen of Seattle watched. Carter shot an 82.—Times photo by Richard S. Heyza.

The Seattle Daily Times

SPORTS

Page 24 TUESDAY, JUNE 19, 1962

Davis Forgets 'Script'—Belts Winning Homer

By Associated Press.

A bad actor, that Tommy Davis. Won't follow the script at all.

It was supposed to be a work-hard-for-one-run sort of ball game. Hit and run, steal, sacrifice and all that—the way the Los Angeles Dodgers have been winning many of their games.

With the Dodgers and St. Louis hooked up in a scoreless struggle through eight innings last night, it looked like another one.

But Davis was having none of it. He departed from the script to hit a one-out homer in the bottom of the ninth that gave the Dodgers and Sandy Koufax a 1-0 victory and spoiled a fine job by the Cardinals' Bob Gibson.

The victory increased the Dodgers' National League lead to 1 1/2 games over idle San Francisco. Hank Aaron's second grand-slam homer in four days helped Milwaukee to a 7-1 triumph over New York. Cincinnati broke a three-game losing string and swept two from Pittsburgh, 6-5 and 4-2, in the only other National League games scheduled.

Minnesota crept to 1 1/2 games from the top and snapped Kansas City's six-game winning string with a 9-4 romp over the Athletics in the only game scheduled in the American League.

DODGERS 1, CARDS 0 — Koufax and Gibson (8-5) had a nifty battle going before Davis decided things with his 350-foot shot. It was only the third hit off Gibson. Koufax (10-2) allowed five singles, struck out nine and, for the first time in his career, went nine innings without walking a man.

BRAVES 7, METS 1—Aaron became the second National League ever to reach the left-centerfield bleachers in the Polo Grounds with his bases-loaded, third-inning homer. The 450-foot drive off Jay Hook (4-8) was Aaron's 14th homer of the season and sixth grand slam of his career.

TWINS 9, A's 4 — Camilo Pascual (9-4) was backed by a 17-hit attack. He allowed only seven hits, but they included homers by Dick Howser and Gino Cimoli. Rich Rollins and Vic Power each had three hits for Minnesota.

REDS-PIRATES — Purkey's seven-hitter nailed down the nightcap after Jim Brosnan and Johnny Klippstein choked off Pirate rallies in support of Joey Jay in the first. The Reds collected 14 hits in the first game, including homers by Frank Robinson, Don Blasingame and Chico Cardenas.

Jerry Lynch homered in the second game and Vada Pinson had six hits in eight times at bat for the day.

(See Page 27 for yesterday's box scores.)

Sports Program

TONIGHT

SOFTBALL: National League game, 6:45 p. m.; American League game, 8:15; both Broadway Playfield.

LAWN BOWLING: Woodland Park, 7 p. m.

AMATEUR BASEBALL: Cheney vs. Shoreline, White Center Stadium, 8 p. m.

TOMORROW

LAWN BOWLING: Jefferson Park, 1 p. m.; Woodland Park, 1 and 7 p. m.

SOFTBALL: National League game, Sand Point, 6:45 p. m.

Ex-Open Champ Dies

ATLANTA, June 19.—(A.P.)—George Sargent, United States open champion in 1909 and former president of the Professional Golfers' Association, died yesterday after a long illness. He was 79.

Oarsmen Unanimous In Vote for Eastern Race

By GEORGE M. VARNELL
Associate Editor, The Times

University of Washington oarsmen today returned to their shell to prepare for a "rematch" with Cornell in Philadelphia's Independence Day rowing regatta with a Russian crew as a guest starter.

A poll of members of the Permanent Crew Fund, under way today, so far was unanimous for providing money for transportation expenses for the trip.

Some Fund trustees, out of town, were not expected to be reached until tomorrow.

Seattle Golfer Gains P. G. A.

TACOMA, June 19.—(A.P.)—Jim Peterson, Vancouver, Wash., and Herb Magnusson, Seattle, qualified yesterday for the national Professional Golf Association tournament in Newton Square, Pa., July 19-22.

Peterson shot 74-71—145 on the par-72 Tacoma Golf Club course to head the linksmen who tried for berths in the tourney.

Magnusson shot 73-75—148 to tie with John Rudy of Tacoma for fourth place, but he landed the second qualifying berth because Rudy and the two who tied for second place, Chuck Congdon of Tacoma and Don Bies of Seattle, were not shooting to qualify.

Bob Rosburg, touring pro from Portland, automatically qualified for the third sectional place. He is a former P. G. A. champ.

Congdon and Bies each shot rounds of 73-74—147.

Bob Duden, Portland, defending sectional champ, was low for the first round with 70, but he slipped and shot 79 in the second round.

Drag-Strip Driver Dies After Crash

DURHAM, N. C., June 19.—(A.P.)—Bill Cooper, 35, of Hampton, Va., who suffered head injuries when his car overturned in a race at the Greenville drag strip Sunday, died at Duke Hospital yesterday.

L. T. Hardee, operator of the strip, said Cooper lost control of the car when he hit his brakes too quickly as he finished a run. He ran off the side of the track and the car turned over.

Kentucky tells the world:
"TASTE HOW LIGHT A BOURBON CAN BE!"

BOTTOMS UP! Here's the light-tasting bourbon for modern-day tastes. Traditional Kentucky character in a bourbon made and matured to be notably light... notably right for modern living. Enjoy the just-right lightness that makes this such a friendly-tasting whisky. "BOTTOMS UP!"

$4.90 FIFTH

THE TIME-HONORED BOURBON LOOKED UP TO FOR LIGHTNESS

KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKY. 85 PROOF

OLD KENTUCKY DISTILLERY, LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY