deemed by internecine war in the Los Sailed Angeles ranks. With two men out and a man on third, Spies hit the ball within the limits of the infield. Thinking it was a dead one, he stopped running. As luck would have it, the ball was juggled, and but for Spies' slow run down a run could have been scored.

Captain Reilly fined Spies $10. A few minutes later Spies and Belliv engaged.

minutes later Spies and Reilly engaged in a wordy contest, and Spies smote Reilly on the ear. Reilly grabbed a bat, and Spies closed in on him and wrested it from his hands. The police then interfered, and great noise and confusion followed. The league magnates are responsed to the spies of fusion followed. The league magnates tonight imposed a fine of $50 on Spies, and Morley fined him $25 in addition.

When the teams filed out of the grounds Former Umpire Graves and Hutchinson exchanged compliments. Graves displayed a knife and Hutchinson threw his bat at Graves. The crow closing in prevented further trouble.

Causes a Sensation Among Northern Golfers-Miss Caro Crockett Wins the Ladies' Championship

DEL MONTE Aug 24.—The men's open championship golf contest was won by Robert Johnstone, the San won by Robert Johnstone, the San Francisco Golf club's professional, by a narrow margin over C. E. Maud of Riverside, the amateur coast champion. Johnstone made 36 holes in 148 strokes, Maud's score being 150. James Melville of Del Monte links tied with George Smith, another professional, for third place, and the tie will probably be played off next week. Maud's magnificent golf is causing a mi'd furore among northern players, for never before has such golf been seen on the northern links. Even John Lawson, the north's crack golfer, was seen on the northern links. Even John Lawson, the north's crack golfer, was distanced twenty-six strokes by him today. Complete scores for 36 holes, medal play, follow:

Frofessionals—R. Johnstone, 148: George Smith, 153; F. J. Reilly, 156; James Melville, 153; H. Rawlins, 160; W. J. Bradlev, 162; Alex, Bell, 172.
Amateurs—C. E. Maud, 150; E. R. Folger, 161; John Lawson, 176; W. Sears, 158; R. M. Fitzgerald, 181; F. S. Stratton, 167; J. W. Blerne, 158; C. E. Orr, 169; Dr. C. Walter, 126 for 24 holes; C. D. Hubbard, 170.

BOWLERS' PICNIC TO RAMONA POSTPONED

The members of the Southern California Bowling association will not visit President W. E. Rothery's ranch at Ramona in a body today as planned. The event has been postponed until after a meeting of the association has been held, at which the arrangements for the distribution of the prizes will be completed.
The prizes have not been collected as yet, but they will probably all be in some time during the week.

Secretary R. B. Griffith said yester-
