Ilaha Hills Country Club

Ilaha Hills Country Club provides a challenging golf experience in a grand setting. A backdrop of trees line the traditional layout, designed by renowned golf course architect William Bell and opened for play in 1961. Ilaha Hills has played host to many of Oregon's major golf events, as well as USGA Championships. Ilaha Hill's fairways are often referred to as "carpet" and it's putting surfaces are widely regarded as some of the purest in the Northwest.
