Thornton and Densley win PNW Pro-Amateur Championship

ROSLYN, WA – Tumble Creek Club and Roper Rider at Suncadia Resort

PGA Professional Brian Thornton of Meridian Valley CC and amateur Todd Densley won the Pro-Amateur Championship by seven strokes over first round leaders PGA Professional Mike DeLong of Coeur d'Alene Resort with his amateur Bob Christensen. Thornton and Densley fired a nine under par 63 at the new Rope Rider course at Suncadia Resort.

Pacific Northwest Pro-Am is a two-man team competition with one professional and one amateur playing a four-ball format.
