Feenstra wins Washington Open Invitational

BELLEVUE, WA – Glendale CC –$165,000 Purse, 6,525 yards, par 71

PGA Professional Tim Feenstra of Broadmoor GC (Seattle, WA) won the Washington Open Invitational today with a three round total of 200. Michael Putnam of the PGA Tour took second place. Feenstra has previously won this event back in 2007. His score today set a new tournament record for the Washington Open Invitational which was set back in 1976 by PGA Professional Chuck Milne at Meridian Valley CC.

Tim Feenstra and his amateur partner Greg Stark of Broadmoor GC (Seattle, WA) won the team competition of the Washington Open Invitational after posting rounds of 65-59-65-189. They won by five strokes over PGA Professional Tom Staskus and Brian Patton of Capital City GC (Olympia, WA).

The official charity of the Washington Open Invitational is Camp Korey. Camp Korey serves children and their families from throughout the Northwest with serious and life-threatening illnesses at no cost. The camp offers year-round recreation with full support for the medical needs of campers, plus all the fun of just being a kid. To learn more about the charity or to make a donation, please go to www.campkorey.org This year's event raised $500,000.
